

Terms and conditions

- Membership will be granted to seed companies after evaluation by an expert committee of the university.
- Membership is valid for five years from the date of enrollment.
- Members of JNAU-Seeds Industry Consortium will be eligible to produce and market improved varieties or hybrids developed in JNAU under licensing agreement. Licensing fee will be paid separately for each variety/hybrid which will be communicated from time to time.
- Released and pipeline hybrids would be provided to member companies for testing purpose. The quantity of seeds to be supplied will be determined considering the availability of the seeds in JNAU.
- Member Company will be eligible for starting up research collaborations with JNAU.
- An advisory board will be constituted under the chairmanship of the Vice Chancellor of JNAU, to oversee the activities of the consortium. Besides, senior officers from JNAU two representatives from member seed companies will be taken in the advisory body.
- Members will be entitled for discount to participate conferences and trainings organized by BPD Unit, JNAU. The extent of discount will be communicated before the events.
- Names of the consortium members will be displayed in the website of BPD Unit, JNAU.
- In case of a company getting merged or taken over by another company, the membership will be inherited by the merged entity or the company which took over the control.
- Any dispute arising out of the partnerships will be subject to the jurisdiction of Jabalpur.