

CONDUCT OF PRACTICAL AND HANDS-ON-TRAINING

The department of Food Science and Technology offers Experiential Learning Programme on "Post Harvest Technology and Value Addition" for B.Sc Agri., Final Year, Second Semester students for commercial production of value added products based on cereals, pulses, oil seeds, fruits and vegetables. In this programme since 2014-15 every year, about 60 students are being trained for production of various food products.